

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 18, 2018

Contact: Shannon Kane, (757) 652-4008, shannon@veenalothe.com

Community Leaders for Veena Lothe

GLEN ALLEN, VA — Today, the Veena Lothe campaign announced that several community leaders are supporting Veena Lothe's candidacy for Virginia's 12th State Senate District. These grassroots leaders will be announced over the next week.

"Veena sows unity by encouraging everyone to the table and because of her deep commitment to our community she'll always have her ear to the ground and know what issues people face here in Virginia's 12th Senatorial District," said Laura Pho on her endorsement, local grassroots leader from Henrico County.

"I'm honored to have these leaders' support for our campaign," said Lothe. "Their grassroots efforts have transformed the 12th from a deep red locality to swing district. I look forward to working with each of them to flip this district and bring accountable leadership to the 12th District."

####

Veena Lothe is a Democratic challenger to Senator Siobhan Dunnivant in Virginia's 12th State Senate District. She is a former civil rights & union lawyer, who currently practices immigration law in Glen Allen. Lothe is a committed grassroots activist & community leader, who sits on several local boards. She currently resides in Glen Allen with her 2 children. To learn more about Veena, please visit VeenaLothe.com.

Paid for by Veena Lothe for Virginia
