

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 9, 2018

Contact: Shannon Kane, (757) 652-4008, shannon@veenalothe.com

Larry Barnett endorses Veena Lothe

GLEN ALLEN, VA — Today, Larry Barnett, former candidate for the 27th District of the Virginia House of Delegates, announced his endorsement of Veena Lothe, candidate for Virginia's 12th State Senate District.

"Veena is a candidate with the qualities of empathy, personal integrity, honesty and compassion for others. People in our community want representatives with sound judgment and the necessary skills to capably represent them. Veena is the candidate who can work together with other legislators to craft practical solutions to benefit and improve the lives of people in our community," said Barnett.

"I'm honored to have Larry Barnett's support for our race," said Lothe. "Larry is a kind and hard-working community leader, who inspires others to get involved and change the dynamics in our current political atmosphere."

###

Veena Lothe is a Democratic challenger to Senator Siobhan Dunnivant in Virginia's 12th State Senate District. She is a former civil rights & union lawyer, who currently practices immigration law in Glen Allen. Lothe is a committed grassroots activist & community leader, who sits on several local boards. She currently resides in Glen Allen with her 2 children. To learn more about Veena, please visit VeenaLothe.com.

Paid for by Veena Lothe for Virginia